

Copyright Infringement

ToonUp Snippets, Inc. (ToonUps) abides by the federal Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) responding to notices of alleged infringement that comply with the DMCA and other applicable laws. As part of our response, we may remove or disable access to material residing on a site that is controlled or operated by Toonups that is claimed to be infringing, in which case we will make a good-faith attempt to contact the person who submitted the affected material so that they may make a counter-notification, also in accordance with the DMCA.

Before serving either a Notice of Infringing Material or Counter-Notification, you may wish to contact a lawyer to better understand your rights and obligations under the DMCA and other applicable laws. The following notice requirements are intended to comply with ToonUps' rights and obligations under the DMCA and, in particular, section 512(c) of Title 17, and do not constitute legal advice.

Notice of Infringing Material

To file a notice of infringing material on a site owned or controlled by Toonups, please provide a notification containing the following details:

1. Reasonably sufficient details to enable us to identify the work claimed to be infringed or, if multiple works are claimed to be infringed, a representative list of such works (for example: title, author, any registration or tracking number, URL);
2. Reasonably sufficient detail to enable us to identify and locate the material that is claimed to be infringing (for example a link to the page that contains the material);
3. Your contact information so that we can contact you (for example, your address, telephone number, email address);
4. A statement that you have a good faith belief that the use of the material identified in section 2 is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law;
5. A statement, under penalty of perjury, that the information in the notification is accurate and that you are authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the exclusive right that is alleged to be infringed; and
6. Your physical or electronic signature.

Then Send this Notice to:

Counter-Notification If Material is Removed

We may give you notice that we have removed or disabled access to certain material by means of a general notice on any ToonUps' Site, electronic mail to a user's e-mail address in our records, or by written communication sent by first-class mail to your physical address in our records. If you receive such a notice, you may provide counter-notification in writing to the Designated Agent, that includes the information below. To be effective, the counter-notification must be a written communication that includes the following:

1. Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or disabled;
2. A statement, under penalty of perjury, that you have a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification of the material in question;
3. Your name, address and telephone number;
4. A statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for judicial district in which your address is located or, if your address is outside of the USA, for any judicial district in which ToonUps may be found and that you will accept service of process from the person who submitted a notice in compliance Section 512(c)(1)(C) of the DMCA, as generally described above;
5. Your physical or electronic signature.
